Most Common Pawns

Yesterday on BlueSky the rarest of occurances: someone capable of empathy and reason. This is a transcript of our DM conversation, with commentary afterwards. As usual, my responses are denoted in [brackets].

If you go to her fb Patricia Dumas, her niece posted she passed in October of last year. I am sorry for your loss. Her family’s contact info is on her fb page. It has the same picture you have of her and a small child.

[Her accounts are not her - they are Tommy.

He is trying to cover up his and her sister Pamela's gaslighting campaign and possibly her murder, though I am convinced she is trapped physically inside the residence and hooked on massive amounts of prescription opioids and other pills.

I guarantee there is no burial record and most certainly no death certificate.

This is criminal.

Tommy hacked at least a dozen FB and Instagram accounts of family members and publicly tried to attack me.

Screenshots are posted on DeviantArt in the links.

A transcript of him pretending he was her Aunt Carol for nearly a year is posted on the Internet Archive.

They live in Oakland County, Michigan.

There would be a death certificate filed there if she was dead.]

Okay, I will look further. I will get back to you in a bit if I find anything. I didn’t find a death certificate either.

[Patty's FB account was not Patricia Dumas.

It was Patty Roberts Randle.

What does it say there?

Please excuse my tone.

I am not angry with you, of course

This is beyond frustrating.

They need to pay for what they've done.

This is disgusting.

The same thing Trump and his clones do - assume that everyone will just believe what they say b/c they're fucking entitled selfish children.

I am so angry right now my hands are shaking.

Why would her 'niece' post when she has two daughters and two grandchildren?

All of the social media accounts I've ever found of Kylie, Brittany, Breanna, and Lauren were either abandoned or hacked.

Even Patty's gmail account turned out to be registered to Tommy.

I wouldn't doubt with Pam's help he has been harassing all of them.

Classic narcissistic traits - the kind that are described on domestic abuse recovery site.

Almost always in past tense as horrific murder reports.

DARVO is a manipulative tactic used by perpetrators of wrongdoing, standing for Deny, Attack, and Reverse Victim and Offender, where they deny their harmful behavior, attack the person confronting them, and then portray themselves as the victim to avoid accountability and shift blame. Coined by psychologist Jennifer Freyd, this strategy is common in domestic abuse and gaslighting, making it hard for victims and bystanders to see the truth.]

Her ex (?) is in Texas now.

Lakeway, Tx

[Tommy? Where?

No.

That is old info.

That's where they moved from.

Almost 20 years ago]

No, he’s back there it’s got a current addy and phone.

[Who is at the address in Michigan?]

Weirdly her email is attached to HIM.

Meaning he’s listed as the user. That’s… odd and probably how he hacked her accounts?]

[They sold that house. The address would be a different one than the one 20 yrs previous.

Yes.]

23 Muirfield Greens Lane

[Yeah. That's the old one.

I was there on several occasions with her mother]

Well, according to records this is his current addy. Which is weird. There are multiple in Mi and Tx

But those are listed as older. This is where mail is going to him now, according to records search.

[This is the bullshit I've been dealing with all along.

A fragile coward with his victim isolated.

He also isn't listed as being employed anywhere as an accountant in a decade.

The HR for Ryan, LLC reports he was fired long ago.

Another stint for a month or two at another firm, then nothing.]

He’s 66 he may have ret?

[He should be a year or two older than that.

His LinkedIn page claims he is a Director for a non-existent office in Troy, MI.]

If he’s an accountant he has a license. Do a state licensing search. If he’s an accountant it will be there Kylie is still in MI it appears.

[No.

The last I found had her in Maryland.

Lemme guess, she's living at the address 2164 Craigend Ln?]

No, that addy is old. This is a quick search of his info

[All of those numbers are out of service.

Hotmail?

This is all old and garbled.

This is why I need police.

Ones that aren't corrupt sexist bribed fascists.

Someone yesterday suggested I send emails to some TV er podcast hosts. Nancy Grace and Anderson Cooper. I'm not familiar, but I did.

The fucking nerve of that waste of life to publicly pretend she's dead. None of her family would ever look up Patricia Dumas. Everyone calls her Patty. She hasn't been Dumas for 30 yrs

Thank you for your efforts on our behalf.

It has been seven years since she told me she asked me to marry her and said she was leaving to join me.

Our government is a fucking fascist, sexist, racist disgrace. I am well past the point of violence now.

With the Dumas public post and no death certificate maybe now I can get some legal help or overt public investigation

Thank you.

Are the Michigan voting records public yet?

I bet he mailed in a ballot for her for Trump.

Please excuse me. I am starting to rant at you. I can check those myself.

You've already been extremely helpful]

I understand. I set up a little net to pull info. I will check tomorrow and see if anything new shows up. It very weird/disturbing for a family member to say she’s passed away if she hasn’t. That’s your starting point. That’s a thread to pull

[I've been trying to get help from anyone for so long that anyone actually caring is surreal.

I've written an addendum to my recent emails to journalists and published it on DA, Substack, and here on BlueSky. Up to my max of two of Medium already.

I cannot thank you enough.]

Well, I can’t promise, but I can try. Also, if you give the basic bones of this story, just a friend was supposed to travel to meet with you and then disappeared there are several groups on fb that can help. Don’t give all this info. It overwhelms people. Let me get you a link

Looking for lost family on fb is amazing. But keep it brief, birthday, cities, full name and last you spoke & her pictures. There are SERIOUS people able to help in that group, but how you package your info is everything

So, deep breaths and try to keep it simple. I am in there and I will interact to get things going there.

[I have banned from FB, Threads, LinkedIn, and Reddit. Everyone believes the gaslighter.

Actually, I might still have access to my official artist page. I am currently homeless and don't have access to my laptop.

I'm using a $50 WallyWorld Motorola and the complex wide Wi-Fi of an apartment complex we're squatting at. I sold my property to pay for private investigators (who refused to do anything). Every waking hour has been spent trying to get attention since then.

I will post it and let you know what comes of it.

The next day at 12:12pm I opened BlueSky and read:

This user has blocked you.

Welcome to my world - our world.

We offer facts and intelligence and reason.

They offer willful ignorance, stupidity, and predjudice. Whatever will satisy Their own selfish desires temporarily.

No explanation. She did 1/1 millionrh the effort I put in and decided it wasn't worth her time, despite all evidence pointing to my conclusions. Halfway during the conversation, I began to realize that, but hope is a serrated spearhead, is it not? The links I refer to are contained in information I have spent seven years accumulating - which one would assume someone in her position would have read. No, it turns out. That would require empathy. That would require her to be a human being.

Be constantly aware, my friends, of these person-shaped monsters employing obfuscation by idiocy. They are the most common pawns of evil.
